ASH WEDNESDAY FAST / LENTEN FRIDAY ABSTINENCE: Catholics are too fast on Ash Wednesday & Good Friday & abstain from meat on all Lenten Fridays. Lenten abstinence means eating no meat or foods made from meat. Lenten fasting means eating only 2 small meals that together do not equal the size of the main meal & no eating between meals. The Ash Wednesday & Good Friday fast obliges Catholics ages 18-59. Lenten abstinence obliges Catholics ages 14 & older.

"Unless you do penance, you shall all likewise perish." Cf., Luke 13:5

ASH WEDNESDAY ENVELOPES are attached to the bulletin. These envelopes can be used throughout Lent. Donations are forwarded to Catholic Relief Services / Operation Rice Bowl.

- 1. For 75 yrs Catholic Relief Services (CRS) have aided the poor abroad & provided emergency relief assistance in the USA. 75% of donations are allocated for foreign assistance & 25% for local diocesan social services.
- 2. CRS annually helps 190 million people in 100 countries. CRS cooperates with the US Catholic Bishops Conference & Caritas International. Learn more @ https://crs.ricebowl.org
- 3. Caritas International began in Germany in 1897, relocated to Rome in 1951, & is called The Helping Hand of the Church, networking with 160 worldwide charities. Learn more @ https://www.caritas.org/who-we-are
