SAINT PATRICK'S DAY, MARCH 17th

(Cf., Chronology from Confessions/Memoirs by St Patrick, 450 AD)

- 385 AD – Born near Dumbarton, then part of Roman Britannia, today SW coastal Scotland.
- 399 AD – Captured by pirates & sold into slavery in Hibernia, Roman name of ancient Ireland.
- 405 AD – Receives mystical experience leading him to escape slavery. Returns home & then studies in Gaul (now France) to become a priest. Ordained in 417 AD.
- 428 AD – Consecrated bishop & sent with mission team to Ireland by Pope Celestine I. Establishes mission center in Armagh, today in Northern Ireland.
- 433 AD – Lights the Easter fire on Hill of Slane in defiance of the Druid pagan spring fire on Tara Hill. Patrick converts to Christianity Eithne & Fedeln, daughters of the Irish high king Laeghaire. Note: Patrick & his missionaries used shamrocks as a symbol of The Mystery of the Trinity in catechesis for their converts.
- 441 AD – Spends Lent's 40 days on a 2,000 ft. mountain in County Mayo, NW Ireland, now named Croagh Patrick.
- 461 AD – Dies on March 17TH. Buried in Downpatrick, County Down, today in Northern Ireland.

(Gaelic Greeting)

“Beannachtai na Feile Padraig dhuit.”
(St Patrick's Day Blessings to You.)
