World Mission Sunday will be October 17-18. This celebration and collection are the primary support for the 1131 missionary diocese in the world. It is the only canonically required collection for every parish in the entire world. USA provides 30% of the worldwide collection. This is the 100th anniversary of World Mission Sunday. The Pope and the National Director encourage us to be generous in prayer and financially in honor of this 100th anniversary and Blessed Fulton Sheen who profoundly supported the missions as National Director for 15 years.

“The Pontifical Mission Societies are effectively the “primary means” of awakening missionary responsibility among all the baptized and supporting ecclesial communities in areas where the Church is young.” Pope Leo XIV
